

Agreement on mutual co-operation between Producers Guild of India and European Film Commissioners Network (EuFCN)

India and Europe have always had good relations and represent common interests in sharing trade and cultural exchange. All countries inspire, excite and motivate all to come to them whether it is on business or pleasure.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN wish to further enhance their relationship for the mutual benefit of the film production industries of all the European Countries.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN agree to enter into an agreement with aim to primarily work together to share ideas and best practices on domestic and international film production, shooting and promotion.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN see this co-operative agreement as one which can further all countries' understanding of their film production markets and increase cultural understanding for mutual benefit.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN agree, subject to funding, to exchange visits between the member countries and India to enhance their relationship and facilitate further opportunities for dialogue and the creation of ideas, sharing of ideas and best practices for a forward thinking of film production business.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN will use best endeavours to enable the seamless and most cost-effective use of local services and facilities with regard to securing agreements to film across the respective countries' agencies, organisations and Government authorities.

It would be of mutual interest that the production companies from India to have the possibility to get references from EuFCN on European producers and production service companies. The Europeans would require the same from the Producers Guild concerning the Indian companies.

Producers Guild of India and EuFCN will explore new and innovative ideas to further progress the relationship with exciting initiatives and moreover secure the quality of the mutual project exchange.

The agreement is valid for the period of May 2019 - April 2021 and will be reviewed thereafter.
