

Agreement of mutual co-operation between Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India

2013

London and Mumbai represent the primary hubs of the film industries in their countries; both are centres of global trading and meeting points for business networks. They have a strong shared history of trade and cultural exchange. Both cities inspire, excite and motivate all who come to them whether it is on business or pleasure.

The Mayor of London's film agency, Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India wish to further enhance their relationship for the mutual benefit of both cities Film production industry.

- Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India establish the renewal of this agreement with the aim to primarily work together to share ideas and best practice on domestic and international Film production and promotion.
- Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India see this co-operative agreement as one which can further both cities understanding of their film production markets and increase cultural understanding for mutual benefit.
- Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India agree, subject to funding, to exchange visits between London and Mumbai to enhance their relationship and facilitate further opportunities for dialogue and the creation of ideas, share ideas and best practice for a forward thinking film production business.
- Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India will use best endeavours to enable the seamless and most cost effective use of local services and facilities with regard to securing agreements to film across the respective city's agencies, organisations and government authorities.
- Film London and The Film & Television Producers Guild of India will explore new and innovative ideas to further progress the relationship with exciting initiatives.
- This agreement will be reviewed on a yearly basis.

Signed by: Mr Adrian Wootton
CEO, Film London

Signed by: Mr Kulmeet Makkar
CEO, The Film & Television Producers Guild of India

Dated: April 2013